Headline:
Humid. East cloudy with coastal mist. West sunny with showers.

Today:
Humid. A cloudy day for Lothian and eastern Borders with mist, drizzle and fog patches, mainly focused around coasts, where longer spells of rain may develop late afternoon. Western areas warm with strong sunshine, which builds sharp showers into afternoon. Maximum temperature 22 deg C (72 deg F).

Tonight:
East cloudy with some rain, mainly focused around coastal fringes where more persistent outbreaks expected during the evening. West seeing clear spells, also some evening showers. Winds light easterly. Minimum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Tuesday:
Eastern areas cloudy with some patchy light rain, though brightening from mid-day. Western parts mix of brighter spells and showers, though outbreaks lighter and much more isolated than off late. Maximum temperature 22 deg C (72 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Dry and warm with light winds and strong sunshine. With winds turning to the west the higher maximum temperatures will now be switched to the east.
